

Tree Planting

As part of the new Future Makers Program that Bogong Outdoor Education Centre is conducting, students explore and learn about working towards creating positive futures, including participating in community action.

Mount Beauty Secondary College students recently attended a Bogong Outdoor Education Centre 'Future Makers' program and participated in the planting of native grasses during their walk on the Bogong High Plains. They met with Parks Victoria staff Kevin Cosgriff and Alastair Hodgson who guided them in the planting.

MBSC students Ebony Tanzen and Alydia Fowler enjoying the planting on the high plains. Pic - Courtesy BOEC.